Motion for May PPERRIA Meeting – Jim Oberly

Motion: To release $24,997 from NRP Action Plan PARC A.1.a.-A.1.d. and from Livability C.1. for a variety of Luxton Park Council initiatives.

At its monthly meeting, the Luxton Park Council voted unanimously to request that PPERRIA release NRP funds for the following projects. The Luxton Park Council has determined that there are no competing proposals for these funds:

1. $3,000 (from NRP Action Plan, PARC A.1.b. Luxton sports camps) for youth sports camps for summer of 2001. The Luxton Park Council will work with Summer Splash leaders to set up a series of soccer camps with the Minnesota Thunder major league soccer team.
2. $12,952 (from PARC A.1.d. Luxton computer classroom) for the Luxton Park computer room for summer of 2001, and to continue into 2002. The Luxton Park Council will work with East Side Neighborhood Services to hire a staff person to work with Glendale-Prospect Park-East River Road youth in a mentoring program with senior citizens. $12,452 of the funds will be spent on a staff person for this initiative. The balance of $500 will be spent on additional computer hardware for the Luxton Park computer room.

Pratt Ice Cream Social Needs Volunteers – Bruce Graff

The annual Pratt Ice Cream Social will be on Friday, June 1, 2001, from 5:30-8:30 p.m. at Pratt Community Center. This beloved neighborhood event will again be co-sponsored by Pratt Council, ECFE, and the Prospect Park Cooperative Nursery School. Join your neighbors for a wonderful evening of music, food, ice cream and cake, and a once-a-year chance to climb the Prospect Park water tower for a fantastic view of the city skyline. If you'd like to volunteer to help, call 668-1122.
